

LEGAL SELF-HELP PORTAL

Free Online Legal Resource From Kentucky Courts

Accessing free legal resources 24/7 is easy with the Kentucky Court of Justice's Legal Self-Help Portal. The portal is specially designed to help people who are representing themselves in legal matters. Resources include links to legal information by topic, expungement assistance, an interactive program to complete legal forms and much more. For those who need an attorney but can't afford one, the site offers attorney referral services and contacts for Kentucky's regional legal aid programs.

A2J Guided Interviews®

These online interviews help users complete legal forms for many common legal situations. The program guides users through a series of questions and uses the answers to fill out legal forms that can be filed with the court.

Online interviews include, among others:

- Divorce • Small Claims • Expungement
- Domestic Violence • Child Support
- Probate • Guardianship • Involuntary Hospitalization • Waivers of Costs & Fees
- Name Change

How to use:

1. Click a link.
2. Check the box to agree to the terms of use.
3. Click "Register" at the top of the A2J webpage to save work and make changes later, or click "Run without account."
4. Complete the guided interview and click "Get Forms."
