

For more information,
contact:

Kentucky Talking
Book Library
PO Box 537
Frankfort, KY 40602
(toll-free)
1-800-372-2968
(local)
1-(502)-564-5791
E-mail:
KTBL.Mail@ky.gov
Website:
www.kdla.ky.gov

Kentucky Department
for Libraries and Archives

BARD Website (Braille and Audio Reading Download)

Registered talking book users may apply to download NLS digital books and magazines at:

<http://nlsbard.loc.gov/>
Choose the link for "BARD application instructions".

Requires an NLS-compatible player, or iOS or Android device for BARD Mobile app

National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped
1-800-424-8567
www.loc.gov/nls/

Reading is for Everyone!

KENTUCKY TALKING
BOOK LIBRARY

Can't see print?
Can't hold a book
and turn the pages?
No problem!
Talking Books is a free program from the Library of Congress.

Who is eligible for this service?

- Anyone who cannot see well enough to read standard print
- Anyone who cannot hold a book and turn the pages
- Some individuals with reading disabilities; see eligibility at www.loc.gov/nls/eligible.html

How do I apply?

- Contact the Talking Book Library for an application, or download one from our website.
- The application must be signed by a competent authority to verify that you are eligible for the service.

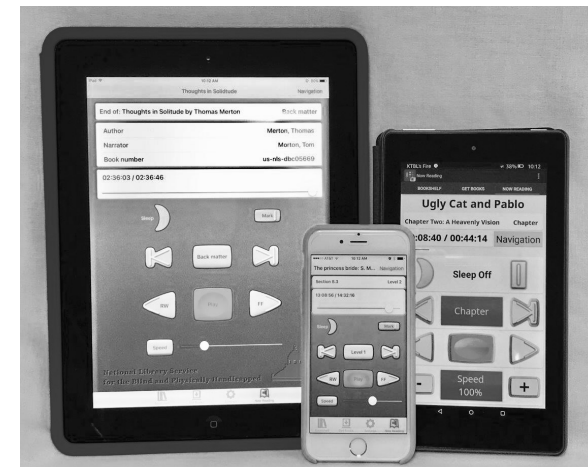

What materials are available?

All types of books for children, teens, adults, & seniors.

- Digital Talking Books
- Digital audio magazines
- BARD downloadable Talking Books and magazines
- BARD Mobile app for iOS and Android devices
- Digital Kentucky audio books

- Braille books and magazines
- Downloadable Braille books
- Print/Braille books—picture books with a Braille overlay
- NFB Newsline®—a newspaper -reading service
- NLS Music Service—Music instruction; Braille and large print music scores

How does it work?

- Books can be mailed or downloaded from the Internet.
- We will provide a special Talking Book player—or use your own mobile device.
- You may choose books from a catalog or ask your librarian to select for you.
- We will send as many or as few books as you can read.
- When you finish a book, simply return it and we will send another automatically.
- This service is completely FREE!