

Reports or Information Items

Reports given to the board are usually information sharing, and differ from library to library.

The Director's Report and Regional Consultant's Report are standard, but key staff, committees of the board, and Friends of the Library representative often give reports to the board in many libraries