

AT A GLANCE

Providing free digital audio and braille books to Kentuckians of all ages with visual, physical, and reading disabilities.

The Kentucky Talking Book Library receives funding through LSTA grants from the Institute for Museum and Library Services, from state sources, and from donations.

Building community

Recording Kentucky titles

Partnering to grow the student braille library

THIS GRAPHIC WAS CREATED IN MARCH 2025.

SERVING MORE THAN

3,800

KENTUCKIANS, INCLUDING VETERANS

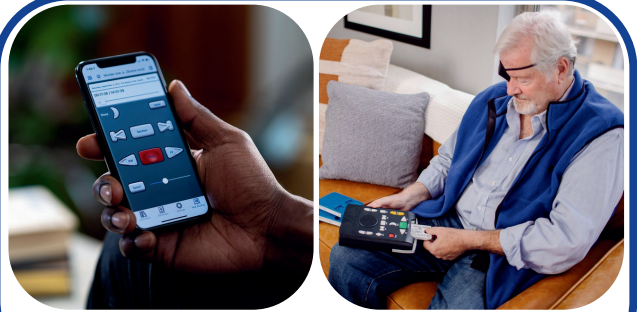

87%

OF OUR USERS SAY THEY WOULD NOT
HAVE ACCESS TO BRAILLE AND AUDIO
MATERIALS WITHOUT KTBL

LENDING MORE THAN

244,000

ITEMS IN BRAILLE AND AUDIO FORMATS

DIGITAL TALKING BOOKS

WHAT OUR USERS SAY

"I've gotten books from you since I was four years old and without them I wouldn't have gone to college—the first one in my family to graduate college."

"Mom has truly turned into a book lover. It is the brightest star in her day."

"When it's darkness these books are like a candle in the night."

"These audio books are my best friends."

"I was always an avid reader, but this eye disease has taken away all the things I love. You save me with these talking books."

"You all have saved my life. I don't know what I'd do without it."

"Thank you for filling my mom's days with such wonderful stories. This was the world to her."

THIS GRAPHIC WAS CREATED IN MARCH 2025.

Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives

