How do I apply?

1. Fill out the attached application completely.

- a. Please include the name and contact information for an alternate contact person. This is a family member or close friend we can contact in the event we cannot reach you.
- b. You must have it signed by competent authority to verify you are eligible. Please include name, title, name of company or agency, address, phone number and email address. We cannot process applications that have not been properly certified.
- c. Indicate what equipment and materials you wish to borrow from our library.
- d. Complete information about your reading preferences and interests.

2. Send the application to us.

- a. Mail: KTBL, PO Box 537, Frankfort KY 40602. You may fold and tape the application so our address shows. There is no postage necessary.
- b. Scan and email to: KTBL.Mail@ky.gov
- c. Fax to: 502-564-5773.

3. Watch for a letter or email from us.

- a. We will send you a letter or email asking you to call KTBL.
- b. During the call, your librarian will explain in detail how the service works, discuss what types of books you like, and determine how many books to send and how often.
- c. If we do not hear from you, we will email or send a letter to your alternate contact person.
- d. If we still do not hear from you or your alternate contact person, we will make an attempt to call you or leave a voice mail message.
- e. If we do not hear from you after these attempts, we will assume you are not interested and your application will be destroyed to protect your privacy.

4. Your service will begin after we have spoken to you or someone on your behalf. You should receive equipment and mailed books within a week or so.

5. If you wish to download books, your librarian will email you a link to the Braille and Audio Reading Download website (BARD). You will receive an email with login information and instructions for using BARD and/or BARD Mobile.

The Kentucky Talking Book Library is part of a nationwide network of libraries administered by the National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled, Library of Congress.

Eligibility and Certifying Authority

Check the one main disability preventing the applicant from reading standard print.

Eligibility must be certified by one of the following: doctor of medicine, doctor of osteopathy, ophthalmologist, optometrist, psychologist, registered nurse, therapist, and professional staff of hospitals, institutions, and public or welfare agencies (such as an educator, a social worker, case worker, counselor, rehabilitation teacher, certified reading specialist, school psychologist, superintendent, or librarian).

_____ Blindness—Visual acuity, as determined by competent authority, is 20/200 or less in the better eye with correcting lenses, or whose widest diameter of visual field subtends an angular distance of no greater than 20 degrees.

_____ Visual Disability—Vision, with correction and regardless of optical measurement, is certified by competent authority as preventing the reading of regular printed material.

_____ Physical Disability—Unable to read or use regular printed material because of physical limitations.

_____ Deaf/Blind—Meets the above definition of blindness, plus hearing loss is so profound the person cannot use audio books and will use braille books only.

_____ Reading Disability—A perceptual or reading disability (such as dyslexia) of sufficient severity to prevent reading printed material in a normal manner.

To be completed by Certifying Authority

I certify that the named applicant requesting library service is unable to read or use regular printed material for the reason indicated above.
