

Messages for Social Media

KTBL can help you stay connected to the stories you love through a large and free collection of library materials in accessible formats from the National Library for the Blind and Print Disabled (NLS). ktbl.ky.gov

Do you have trouble reading small print? Ask your library how you can get talking books and braille books for free from the Kentucky Talking Book Library (KTBL). ktbl.ky.gov

Did you know that, if you qualify, you can get access to audio and braille materials in more than 50 international languages? The Kentucky Talking Book Library has a wide variety of international language titles in accessible format. ktbl.ky.gov

Reading is for everybody! Don't let a diagnosis come between you and the stories you love. Join KTBL for books and magazines in audio and braille that let you read how you want to. ktbl.ky.gov

Keep reading your way, no matter what curveballs life throws at you. If standard print books aren't accessible for you, KTBL delivers reading material in audio and other accessible formats. Call KTBL at 800-372-2968 to get started or visit ktbl.ky.gov.

The Kentucky Talking Book Library's website provides you with easy access to talking and braille book resources and helps patrons, caregivers, and their families find needed resources. Visit ktbl.ky.gov.

Did you know that a diagnosed reading disability qualifies you for service from the Kentucky Talking Book Library? Kentuckians of all ages with reading disabilities like dyslexia are eligible to receive access to free audiobooks, magazines, and music instructional materials. Call KTBL at 800-372-2968 or visit ktbl.ky.gov to get started.

Have you or your child been diagnosed with a reading disability? You can receive free access to audiobooks, magazines, and music instructional materials from the Kentucky Talking Book Library. Ask your local librarian how to get started! ktbl.ky.gov.

If you have a disability that makes reading difficult, we are here to make sure reading is for everyone. Ask your librarian how the Kentucky Talking Book Library helps keep everyone connected with the stories you love and the information you need. Learn more: ktbl.ky.gov

Veterans who served: we're here to serve you. If you're a U.S. Military veteran with a physical or visual disability that prevents you from using regular print books and magazines, the Kentucky Talking Book Library (KTBL) is here for you. Call KTBL at 800-372-2968 or visit ktbl.ky.gov to get started.

Attention veterans: if you came home with a physical or visual disability that keeps you from reading the way you used to, the Kentucky Talking Book Library is here for you. Get free talking books and braille books mailed to your door or downloaded instantly to your smart device. Call KTBL at 800-372-2968 or visit ktbl.ky.gov to get started.

Need a better way to read? You or someone you know may qualify for a free audiobook player. Ask your librarian!