Kentucky Libraries Unbound

- What is Kentucky Libraries Unbound?
 - KLU is a group of Kentucky libraries that share electronic resources. Kentucky Libraries Unbound offers downloadable material through a company called Overdrive 24/7, anytime, anywhere.
- What is available in Kentucky Libraries Unbound?
 - KLU contains eBooks, eAudiobooks, and magazines for both adults and kids. Items can be checked out for up to 21 days. Item renewal is available if no holds are on the item. At the end of the loan period, titles expire and are automatically "returned." You can check out up to 20 titles at a time and place up to 20 holds.
- Are there any restrictions on using my State Library account with KLU?
 - Check with your supervisor and agency's IT Dept. and their policy before using Kentucky Libraries Unbound on state owned equipment. If you are downloading to a personal device, there are no restrictions.
