Apply by February 22 to attend this FREE hands-on, space science-themed workshop that will provide activities, content, and NASA resources to prepare public library staff to facilitate NASA science-focused learning experiences for underserved audiences.

Workshop content can be used in support of the Collaborative Summer Learning Program \(CSLP\) 2019 summer learning theme: "A Universe of Stories."

The workshop facilitators include NASA@ My Library team members from the Space Science Institute and the Lunar and Planetary Institute.

- Gain confidence in facilitating hands-on space science activities for ages 5-13 and their families at their libraries.
- Gain confidence in making connections to current NASA science and missions with NASA apps, video clips, images, and other educational and promotional resources.
- Network with others involved in facilitating innovative science and technology programs.
- Connect to a broader online community of practice through the STAR Library Network (STAR Net).

The workshop will begin on Monday, April 8 at 1pm, with a Night Sky Viewing that evening (weather permitting). It will conclude at 3pm on Tuesday, April 9. The workshop will include lunch and snacks; participants will receive travel scholarships up to $500.
